

*Central Florida
Honduras Commission*

presents

Diocese of Central Florida PILGRIMAGE TO HONDURAS - 2012

"Come and See -- Go and Tell"

August 22—August 29

This information gathering trip is for church leaders, mission committees and individuals interested in learning more about mission opportunities in Honduras.

The group will be limited to 15 people from across the Diocese of Central Florida who wish to discover where and how their gifts and talents can best be used to further God's plan for the church in Honduras.

Why should I go on this Pilgrimage?

- You want to learn more about how short term mission trips can help the people in this poor country. (Honduras is the 2nd poorest country in the Americas.)
- Your church is interested in forming a partnership with a congregation in Honduras and you want to investigate the possibility of partnering with a congregation in Honduras
- You are interested in encouraging or leading a group from your church on a short term mission trip.
- Your group has decided to sponsor a short term mission trip to Honduras and you want to investigate where to go and how you can match your team's skills to what is needed.

*Rev. Kathy
Pennybacker,
Deacon,
Canon to Honduras, with constant companion,
Skylar*

PILGRIMAGE TO HONDURAS

August 22—August 29, 2012

PHONE:

FULL NAME:
ADDRESS:

E-MAIL:

CHURCH NAME & CITY

Enclose $600 with the application. (Check payable to The Diocese of Central Florida with MEMO: "Pilgrimage August, 2012"). Send to: Central Florida Honduras Commission, 1017 E. Robinson St., Orlando, FL 32801) or register online at: www.hondurascommission.com

DEADLINE: July 16, 2012

What will happen on this trip?

- Kathy Pennybacker, Canon to Honduras from Central Florida will be your Team Leader.
- You will have 1.5 days of training
- You will visit different villages and have an opportunity to speak and worship with the Ministry Team and parishioners.
- You will be given an overview of the social/economic makeup of the area.
- The special needs of each community visited will be explained and suggestions will be given on how a group can help.
- You will visit projects/micro-enterprises that are sponsored by the Episcopal Church in Central Florida.
- You will learn how the Episcopal Church of Honduras is working to ensure the quality of the projects in the Diocese.
- There will be one 'just for fun' day where you can enjoy the beautiful country and do some shopping.

Honduran women at work in one of the many micro-enterprises.

What will this cost?

$600, which includes:

- Accommodation at clean, safe, comfortable facilities in Honduras
- Transportation while in Honduras
- 3 meals per day
- Tips for porters at the Tegucigalpa Airport
- Bottled water during the trip
- Airport exit tax
- Expenses of Team Leader

Additional costs:

- Airfare to/from Tegucigalpa
- Passports
- Souvenirs and personal expenditures

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

July 16, 2012

Please enclose $600 with the application. (Check should be payable to Diocese of Central Florida with MEMO: "Lenten Pilgrimage 2012".)

MAIL APPLICATION

& DEPOSIT TO:

Central Florida Honduras Commission

1017 E. Robinson St.

Orlando, FL 32801

or register online:

www.hondurascommission.com

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Deacon Kathy Pennybacker at revdakatti@ymail.com

What about travel, accommodations and meals?

- Flights are available to Tegucigalpa on American and Continental Airlines (Participants make their own reservations.)
- You will be met at the airport and all land transportation will be provided
- Accommodations will be at the Zamorano Kellogg Center & Humuya Inn, Tegucigalpa
- The dining provides a variety of Honduran cuisine

Zamorano Kellogg Center

Humuya Inn